THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI V. DHANANJAY KUMAR): (a) to (d) As per the latest available data with the Central Statistical Organisation, saving rate measured in terms of gross domestic savings as a proportion of gross domestic product at current prices was 23.3 per cent in 1996-97, 24.7 per cent in 1997-98 and 22.3 per cent in 1998-99 (quick estimates). The decline in the saving rate in 1998-99 is attributed to a decline in the saving rate of both the public sector and the private sector. A higher saving rate is necessary to achieve annual growth rate of 8-9 per cent. For promoting savings it is imperative to improve the parameters which have a bearing on savings behaviour which include rate of growth in the economy, level of fiscal deficit, tax policies, inflation, efficiency of the banking system and the capital market and confidence in the economy.
